WE ALL TOOK THE SAME OBLIGATION
Don't forget to pay your dues.

*Your word is a lamp for my feet and a light for my path."
PSALM 119:105*

THE POEM

*I knelt to pray but not for long,
I had too much to do.
I had to hurry and get to work
For bills would soon be due.
So I knelt and said a hurried prayer,
And jumped up off my knees.
My Christian duty was now done
My soul could rest at ease.....
All day long I had no time
To spread a word of cheer
No time to speak of Christ to friends, They'd laugh at me I'd fear.
No time, no time, too much to do,
That was my constant cry,
No time to give to souls in need
But at last the time, the time to die.
I went before the Lord,
I came, I stood with downcast eyes.
For in his hands God! held a book;
It was the book of life.
God looked into his book and said
"Your name I cannot find
I once was going to write it down...
But never found the time"*

FREEMASONRY IS NOT A FORM TO BE FOLLOWED BUT A FORCE TO GUIDE OUR LIVES!

PROFANE

*Masonically does not refer to blasphemy, but to non-membership.
A profane is one without the Temple,
not initiated; from the Latin pro,
without, and fanum, Temple.
The "profane world" then,
is the non-Masonic world.
<http://www.la-mason.com/frm-stb.htm>
When your down to nothing,
God is up to something.*

FREEDOM IS NEVER FREE

The jewels of the three principal officers of a Lodge are also the working tools of the Fellowcraft degree.

They are the:

PLUMB, LEVEL, and SQUARE.

*Why are these jewels given these distinctions? There are two basic reasons: First, in earlier times, the Fellowcraft was the ultimate degree.
There was no Master Mason degree.
The Fellowcraft was the Journeyman of today. The working tools of a Fellowcraft were the tools of a master craftsman or journeyman.
When the master mason degree was instituted, other working tools were selected to fulfill the ritual requirements. Secondly, while masonry makes use of many esteemed working tools, (ie: Gavel, 24" gauge, trowel, skirret, chisel, pencil, setting maul, etc..) it is the square, level and the plumb which are the fundamental tools that are absolutely necessary to erect any edifice be it physical or spiritual.
Author Unknown*

*The working tools of a Master Mason are all the implements of Masonry indiscriminately, but more especially the Trowel.
The Trowel is an instrument made use of by operative Masons to spread the cement which unites a building into one common mass; but we as Free and Accepted Masons, are taught to make use of it for the more noble and glorious purpose of spreading the cement of brotherly Love and Affection, that cement which unites us into one sacred band, or society, of friends and Brothers, among whom no contention should ever exist, but that noble contention, or rather emulation, of who best can work and best agree.*

FROM THE SECRETARY'S
DESK

*Congratulation and a big thank you to the brethren that made our recent Lone Grove Lodge
#25 Scholastic Scholarship
Golf Tournament Fundraiser
a huge success. Also, thanks go out to all our sponsors who made this the best golf tournament to date. Brother Colby Eastman is commended for his dedicated effort of organizing and implementing this years fundraiser.
Well done Colby.
~ DANNY B. BARNETT ~
Secretary*

*And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three;
but the greatest of these is charity.
1 CORINTHIANS 13:13*

*Brotherly Love means to act in word and deed as a brother to all Masons ~ but not without conditions. Every Freemason makes a solemn promise never to use his membership improperly, especially by either seeking or granting favors at the expense of others. Relief means charity. As well as being charitable in nature, all Freemasons are encouraged to contribute financially to Masonic Charities according to their ability, though never at the expense of their families or other personal obligations.
Truth simply means what it says. Every Freemason must promise to be a law abiding citizen and honest and truthful in his dealings with all other people ~ not just fellow Masons.*

How much, we may ask,
is a man really worth?

He comes into the physical world, travels along the highway of life for a few years, and then lays aside the working tools of life and passes through the transition that~for want of a better term~men call death. And at his passing he takes nothing with him, all his material wealth and possessions are left behind. He takes only himself, and what he has done with his life in the development of character. So it is a fair question to ask, "What is a man really worth?" I think that the answer is that he is worth exactly what he has given away. What he has given away of his time, of his substance, of his effort, of himself. He is worth just that, and nothing more. What we give away we keep~and what we keep we lose. And so it is that the real wealth of any man consists of the countless little acts of kindness in which there is no thought of reward.

PGM of New York

MY OATH TO YOU

When you are sad
I will dry your tears.
When you are scared
I will comfort your fears.
When you are worried
I will give you hope.
When you are confused
I will help you cope.
And when you are lost
And can't see the light,
I shall be your beacon
Shining ever so bright.
This is my oath
I pledge till the end.
Why you may ask?
Because you're my friend.
Signed: GOD

Is Masonry Of Use To Me?
"Masonry is useful to all men:
to the learned, because it affords them the opportunity of exercising their talents upon subjects eminently worthy of their attention; to the illiterate, because it offers them important instruction; to the young, because it presents them with salutary precepts and good examples, and accustoms them to reflect on the proper mode of living; to the man of the world, whom it furnishes with noble and useful recreation; to the traveler, whom it enables to find friends and brothers in countries where else he would be isolated and solitary; to the worthy man in misfortune, to whom it gives assistance; to the afflicted, on whom it lavishes consolation; to the charitable man, whom it enables to do more good, by uniting with those who are charitable like himself; and to all who have souls capable of appreciating its importance, and of enjoying the charms of a friendship founded on the same principles of religion, morality, and philanthropy."

~ ALBERT PIKE 33° ~ Sovereign Grand Commander of Scottish Rite in 1859
(Morals And Dogma)

Let Freemasonry shine to the world as an example of good men united for a common cause, who always accept the brotherhood of Man, regardless of the man.

The Holy Bible lies open upon the Altar of Masonry, and upon the Bible lie the Square and Compasses. They are the three Great Lights of the Lodge, at once its Divine warrant and its chief working tools.

They are symbols of Revelation, Righteousness, and Redemption, teaching us that by walking in the light of Truth, and obeying the law of Right, the Divine in man wins victory over the earthly. How to live is the one important matter, and he will seek far without finding a wiser way than that shown us by the Great Lights of the Lodge.

Freemasonry is not something that can occur in a vacuum or be practiced alone. It is, first and foremost, a system of relationships.

SCOTTISH RITE ~ ~ ~ RITECARE PROGRAM

In the early 1950s in Colorado, the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry of the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States initiated a program to help children with speech and language disorders. The results obtained from this program led to the establishment of RiteCare clinics to provide diagnostic evaluation and treatment of speech and language disorders, as well as learning disabilities. Today, there are 170 RiteCare clinics, centers, and special programs operating or planned for children and therapists located throughout the United States. Each facility is staffed by speech-language pathologists or other trained personnel. Through the support of Scottish Rite members, these clinics, centers, and programs continue to increase. The value of this philanthropy has long been apparent. Tens of thousands of youngsters across the United States have been helped significantly. With the good work of dedicated clinicians and parents, the Scottish Rite has achieved successes that could only be imagined a few years back. Children who might have remained educationally handicapped for a lifetime can now talk, read, and lead useful lives.

Program Eligibility As a rule, the RiteCare Clinics accept preschool children who have difficulty speaking or understanding the spoken word or school-age children who have difficulty learning to read.

Some centers also offer literacy training for adults. Inquiries on age groups and program offerings in specific areas should be addressed to the director of the local Scottish Rite facility. Equally important, all services are available regardless of race, creed, or the family's inability to pay. While all children in need are eligible for available RiteCare Program treatment, please consult with your local facility for specific financial information.

Why are Masons said to be "Free and Accepted"?

Masons are "Free and Accepted" for reasons to be found in the early history of Freemasonry, which you are encouraged to study with diligence. Our early forbearers were skilled artisans~so skilled, in fact, that their work was essential to the welfare of Church and State, and the progress of their day. Although the lives and labors of most workmen were encircled by restrictions of many kinds, these expert craftsmen were exempt from the heavy hand of autocratic power~"free" to pursue their labors and live their lives in a manner consistent with their skills. They were "free" from many things which made burdensome the lives of common workmen. In a social sense, too, they were "free" men~not bound, not in captivity; and it has long been an established custom that only men who are "free born and of lawful age" can become members of our Fraternity. The word "accepted" also carries a special meaning. During the late years of operative Masonry, education or "learning" was difficult to get. Association with learned men was almost impossible outside the Church. Thus many thoughtful men sought membership among the Freemasons of their day~not with the idea of practicing Operative Masonry, but to partake of the learning to be had from such an association. A place was made for these men by taking them into the Craft as "accepted" Masons~members who also desired to receive something from the Lodge, but distinguished from the operative Freemasons by the title "accepted." They were Speculative Masons. As the operative Craft waned, the number of "accepted" or speculative members grew in proportion until finally, early in the 18th Century, the Fraternity became wholly speculative.

What is the Mission of Freemasonry?

To promote a way of life that binds like-minded men in a worldwide brotherhood that transcends all religious, ethnic, cultural, social and educational differences; by teaching the great principles of brotherly love, relief and truth; and, by the outward expression of these through its fellowship, its compassion and its concern, to find ways in which to serve God, family, country, neighbors and self.

The plainest Lodge room in the land was over Simpkins' store, Where Friendship Lodge had met each month for fifty years or more. To city eyes, a cheerless room, long usage had defaced, The tell~tale lines of lath and beam on wall and ceiling traced. The light from oil~fed lamps was dim and yellow in its hue, The carpet once could pattern boast, though now 'twas lost to view. There could be left no lingering doubt, if doubt there was before, The plainest Lodge room in the land was over Simpkins' store. To hear the records of their acts was music to the ear, We sing of deeds unwritten which on angel's scroll appear. A widow's case~four helpless ones~Lodge funds were running low, A dozen Brethren sprang to feet and offers were not slow. Food, raiment, things of needful sort, while one gave a load of wood, Another, shoes or little ones, for each gave what he could. Were Brother cast on darkest square upon life's checkered floor, A beacon light to reach the white~was over Simpkins' store.

*A MASONIC SMILE
SMILING is infectious,
You can catch it like the flu,
When someone SMILED at me today,
I started SMILING too.
As I passed around the,
Altar and a Brother saw my grin,
When he SMILED,
I realized that I'd passed it on to him.
I thought about that little smile,
Then realized its true worth,
A single SMILE just like mine,
Could travel around the earth.*

COMPASSES

*As in Operative Masonry the Compasses are used for the admeasurements of the architect's plans, and to enable him to give those just proportions which will ensure beauty, as well as stability to his work; so, in Speculative Masonry, is this important implement symbolic of that even tenor of deportment, that true standard of rectitude which alone can bestow happiness here and felicity hereafter. Hence, are the compasses the most prominent emblem of virtue, the true and only measure of a Mason's life and conduct.

DUTY

*Every crime against our laws, every sin against decency and morality, every sharp practice against square dealing in business, is a serious reflection on the Masonic Lodge, in the neighborhood in which it is committed. Masonry should not take the pure principles of morality and preserve them in the walled up seclusion of lodge halls, like as we preserve fruit and vegetables and keep them in dark cellars for our own use; but our lodges and our lives should be as lighthouses, blazing out the truths of right living, to bless the community, state and nation, in which we have our being.

Wisdom ~ Strength ~ Beauty

Even the Temple of Solomon, so spacious and magnificent and constructed by so many celebrated artists, escaped not the unsparing ravages of barbarous force.
Freemasonry, notwithstanding,
has still survived.

AND GOD WILL DO THE REST

I asked the Lord to bless you
As I prayed for you today
To guide you and protect you
As you go along your way....
His love is always with you

His promises are true,
And when we give Him all our cares
You know He will see us through.
So when the road you're traveling on Seems difficult at best Just remember I'm here praying
And God will do the rest.

---

All life is an experiment. The more experiments you make the better.
Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail. Every wall is a door. For every minute you remain angry, you give up sixty seconds of peace of mind. God enters by a private door into every individual.
Life consists in what a man is thinking of all day. Never lose an opportunity of seeing anything beautiful, for beauty is God's handwriting. Reality is a sliding door. There are no days in life so memorable as those which vibrated to some stroke of the imagination.
Truth is the property of no individual but is the treasure of all men.

Hiram in the brow of hill,
eyes gone dry with weeping, Sprig of green Acacia and life beyond the grave;
Lion's Paw and Master's Word teach death is but sleeping, Soul in immortality,
as water in a wave.

MASONRY

May the Father bless us now
As we each renew our vow,
Solemnly we gather 'round
On the level, brothers' ground,
Near the altar, on the square Ready strength, we're each to share. Yes, my brother, we do care.
